Berlin Brussels Paris Rome

RBF Standards of Professionalism

The Remembrance Forum (RBF) aims to foster the common values of tolerance, democracy and peace by providing unbiased information and analysis of events around the world. As such the RBF is a non-partisan, impartial organization that seeks a balanced account of events.

Presenters at the hearing on „Trouble Spot Northeast India: Geopolitical Implications, Humanitarian Consequences and Opportunities for Peace", are requested to adhere to RBF's professional standards of fairness, objectivity and impartiality

Germany

RBF Germany e.V.
Kurfürstendamm 21
D-10719 Berlin
mail: Info@rbforum.eu

Unser Blick in die Vergangenheit soll der Zukunft dienen

Reflecting the past helps to build a better future

Hearing

„Trouble Spot Northeast India: Geopolitical Implications, Humanitarian Consequences and Opportunities for Peace"

on Thursday, 10th of April 2014, from 6 to 8 p.m.
followed by a dinner (buffet)
at the Deutsche Parlamentarische Gesellschaft (DPG),
Entrance: Dorotheenstraße 100,
Room: Baden-Württemberg

RBF Germany

RememBranceForum
Building a Better Future

_20140409_RBF_A4_zu_A5_ gefalzt_A5_RBF_Print_Final_3_Final_print.indd 1 10.04.14 01:13

Participating Experts

Dr. Namrata Goswami is Research Fellow at the Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses, New Delhi. She specializes in ethnic conflicts, conflict prevention, management and resolution, and international relations theory. Dr. Goswami was a Senior Fellow at the United States Institute of Peace (USIP), Washington. D.C from October 2012 to June 2013, Visiting Fellow at the South Asia Institute, University of Heidelberg (November–December 2010), the International Peace Research Institute, Oslo (PRIO), August 2006 to July 2010 and a Visiting Fellow at the Centre for Dialogue, La Trobe University, Melbourne, from April to August 2009. She is also a recipient of the Fulbright-Nehru Senior Research Fellowship, 2012-2013. One of the foremost Indian thinkers on long-term global trends, emerging security challenges, and scenario building, she is routinely called to advise government officials and construct scenarios for India‘s internal and external security.

Professor Sanjoy Hazarika is among the most articulate and visible faces for the North East in the country. He holds the Dr. Saifuddin Kitchlew Chair at Jamia Millia Islamia, New Delhi, where he is also Director, Centre for North East Studies and Policy Research. He has been a member of various academic organisations and official committees, including the Justice Jeevan Reddy Committee to Review AFSPA, the Society of Indian Institute of Advanced Studies, Shimla, and the North East India Studies Programme, Jawaharlal Nehru University. Hazarika has worked as a newspaper correspondent, columnist and documentary filmmaker. His books include ‚Rites of Passage‘, ‚Strangers of the Mist‘, ‚Writing on the Wall‘, ‚The State Strikes Back: India and the Naga Insurgency‘ and most recently ‚Little Known Fighters Against the Raj: Figures from Meghalaya‘.

Subir Bhaumik is one of India‘s veteran journalist and a well known specialist on the country‘s eastern and northeastern region and its neighbourhood – Bangladesh, Myanmar, Nepal, Bhutan, and southwest China (Tibet and Yunnan). For seventeen years (1994-2011), he was BBC World Service‘s bureau chief for Eastern and Northeastern India. He has also worked for Reuters and Time Magazine (US), and was founder-editor of ‚Seven Sisters Post‘, and English daily from India‘s Northeast. He is now senior editor with Dhaka-based bdnews24.com. He also pursued academic research and has been a Queen Elizabeth Fellow at Oxford University (1989-91), a fellow at East-West Centre, Washington (2004) and a Eurasian-Nets Fellow at Frankfurt University (2009). He is author of two well acclaimed books „Insurgent Crossfire” and „Troubled Periphery: Crisis of India‘s Northeast“. His articles have appeared in 27 books edited by leading scholars on India, Myanmar, Bangladesh and on issues like migration, terrorism, ethnicity and conflict.

Dr. Kristina Roepstorff is a lecturer at the Institute for Asian and African Studies at Humboldt University Berlin. She has many years of international research experience in the field of peace and conflict studies with a regional focus on South Asia. For her research on Northeast India she was awarded a Government of Canada Postdoctoral Research Fellowship. Most recently, she was a Visting Fellow in the Asia Division of the German Institute for International and Security Affairs (SWP) in Berlin where she worked on Indian foreign policy and the current peace process in Myanmar. Furthermore, Ms Roepstorff works as a freelance analyst, consultant and trainer.

Hearing

„Trouble Spot Northeast India:
Geopolitical Implications, Humanitarian Consequences and Opportunities for Peace“

on Thursday, 10th of April 2014, from 6 to 8 p.m.
followed by a dinner (buffet)
at the Deutsche Parlamentarische Gesellschaft (DPG),
Entrance: Dorotheenstr. 100,
Room: Baden-Württemberg

5.30 pm Reception

6.00 pm Welcome: Jochen Feilcke,
Vice Chairman of Remembrance Forum Germany, MdB a.D.

6.05 pm Welcome: Michel Gourary,
Chairman of Remembrance Forum Germany

Chair: Dr. Kristina Roepstorff

Participating Experts

Dr. Namrata Goswami:
„Armed Ethnic Conflicts and the State‘s Response
in Northeast India“

Professor Sanjoy Hazarika:
„People in the crossfire: humanitarian implications of armed conflicts in the Northeast“

Subir Bhaumik:
„From Backyard to Bridge – India‘s Northeast in the new geopolitics of Asia“